RECOMMENDATIONS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Senders are required to:

(a) use suitable and sturdy envelopes, depending on their content, according to the circulars / recommendations issued by the Director of the Postal Services Department from time to time,

(b) affix the stamps or imprint with a franking machine (Prepaid Postal Charges) on the front right-hand corner of the envelope,

(c) mark the upper side of the envelope, (left) before the stamps or franking machine imprint (Prepaid Postal Charges), with the indication 1st Priority in print format or sticker or, for individual items, a handwritten mark,

(d) write the name and full address of the recipient on the front of the envelope in legible writing. In the case of "windowed" envelopes, please ensure that NOTHING else other than the address of the recipient is shown in the "windowed" area,

(e) write their full name and address on the left upper side of the envelope and

(f) write the POSTAL CODE on the last line of the address BEFORE the name of the town/ community destination.

WEIGHT AND DIMENSIONS OF POSTAL ITEMS

2. Letter mail:

Charges for Letter Mail are based on the categorisation of items into Small (P), Large (G) and Irregular (E) as described in the following Table:

MAXIMUM WEIGHT
Small (P)		Large (G)		Irregular (E)
50 gr.		500 gr.		2000 gr.
DIMENSIONS		THICKNESS
		Max 5 mm	Min 6 mm Max 20 mm	Min 21 mm Max see. 2(a)

Important notes on Domestic Postal Items Letter Mail with Special Charges Irrespective of Priority – Newspapers, Periodicals and Books

1(A).1. Domestic Postal Items with Special Charges' means postal items which are sent to recipients within the Republic of Cyprus and fall under the category of books, newspapers and periodicals and meet the conditions of the Press Law (L. 145/1989), the circulation of which has been considered by the Minister of Transport, Communications and Works that it contributes to accessing culture, ensuring participation in a democratic community (freedom of the press), or the regional and social cohesion.

1(A).2. Only publishers of newspapers, periodicals and books/professional booksellers/authors or their authorised representatives are entitled to the Special Postal Charge, who must always present the requisite supporting documentation (Registration on the Register retained by the Press and Information Office or the Ministry of Education and Culture for newspapers/periodicals and books, respectively, supporting documentation of professional activities for booksellers or registration with a professional association).

1(A).3. Books should not contain advertisements, except only on their wrapping or cover.

1(A).4. Newspapers, periodicals and books must be issued and printed in Cyprus and registered in accordance with the provisions of the Press Law, as amended from time to time, whereas their content must comply with the provisions of the same Law.

1(A).5. Domestic Postal Items with special charges must satisfy the following conditions:

(a) For inspection purposes, they must be posted only at the District Post Offices and the Sorting Centres (S.C.), the Bulk Postal Section, or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

(b) For purposes of proper management and registering the items when posted, Form T.Y. 105 (P.S. 105) shall be used, as revised/replaced from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

(c) The items must be separated per District or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

1(A).6. No discounts are made on the basic charges (Table 1(A)) including the additional charges for special services (Table 3, Table 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3.1).

1(A).7. In the event of non-compliance on the part of the sender with the conditions in the previous paragraphs, then the items shall be charged in accordance with the usual charges, either as a Single posting or as Bulk Posting, as the case may be.

1(A).8. In the case of regular customers and customers who post a large volume of postal items, the charges may be paid until the end of the following month within which the items are posted, following special leave, granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended for a period of up to three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

1(A).9. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

Important notes on Bulk mail 1st and 2nd Priority Postal Items

2.1. This is for all postal items, irrespective of content or how the text is written, such as letters, greeting cards, invoices, bills, forms, small packages, postcards etc. Items for blind or visually impaired persons and special "M" k are not accepted.

2.2. (a) The postal items may only be posted with the District Post Offices and the Automated Mail Sorting Centre, under the following conditions:

i. at least 1000 items per posting are to be handed over,

- ii. they must bear the imprint of a Prepaid Postal Charges stamp or a private franking machine (PFM), with a valid licence number and/or any other special feature of the sender, as granted/approved by the Director from time to time,
- iii. they must be accompanied by a Bulk mail posting Certificate duly completed for the purpose of confirming the correct pricing,
- iv. they must bear the special Priority mark, as may be determined from time to time by the Director.

(b) Postal items posted as bulk mail, according to the conditions in paragraph (a), are charged as fully classified provided, collectively, they are classified:

- i. by district separately,
 - ii. by serial code number,
 - iii. by road and by premises serial number or by Private Post Office Box (PPB) serial number
- according to the directives issued by the Director from time to time.

(c) In the event of non-compliance on the part of the sender with the conditions in the previous paragraphs, then the items shall be charged either as a Single posting or, accordingly, as a non-classified Bulk mail posting.

Provided that the Director, subject to the rules on transparency, proportionality and non-discrimination between users under the same or similar circumstances, may, from time to time, in his circulars, vary the required number of postal items per posting or otherwise so that they are considered as items posted as bulk mail.

2.3. The standardisation / categorisation of postal items into Small, Large, Irregular (P, G, E) is determined every time by the Director subject to the relevant provisions of the Universal Postal Union and other Overseas Postal Organisations, that are mandatory for the Department, as amended from time to time.

~~2.4. In the event that customers post a large number of items the following discounts are granted on the monthly turnover:~~

~~Payable monthly postal charges for A' and B' Priority postal items:~~

- ~~i. Payable monthly postal charges: €10.000 – €50.000 1% discount~~
- ~~ii. Payable monthly postal charges: Over €50.000 2% discount~~

~~Discounts are calculated on the total amount of the monthly turnover including the additional charges for special services in relation to the services in Table 3 (Registered and Insured Items) and Table 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3.1.~~

~~Notes: (a) The charges for special M sacks are not included in the monthly turnover.~~

~~(b) In calculating the payable monthly postal charges, a month is calculated as the first day of the month following the month when approval is given by the Director to integrate the same in the turnover ratio discount system, A' and B' Priority Bulk mail Postal Items.~~

Abolished as from 1/7/2015 with a circular directions of the Director of the Department of Postal Service (DDPS)

Provided that the Director may, from time to time, amend the content of this paragraph, in his circulars, subject to the relevant legislation and in particular the Decisions of the Commissioner of Electronic Communications and Postal Regulation (CECPR) as to the minimum and maximum threshold rates.

2.5. In the event of regular customers and customers who post a large volume of postal items, the charges may be paid by the end of the month that follows the month within which the items are posted, with the special permission granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended to a period of three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

2.6. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director of the Department, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

Important notes on Overseas Postal items with special charges, First (1st) Priority, for Newspapers, Periodicals and Books

6(A).1. 'Overseas Postal Items with Special Charges' means postal items which are sent to recipients outside the Republic of Cyprus and fall under the category of books, newspapers and periodicals and meet the conditions of the Press Law (L. 145/1989), the circulation of which has been considered by the Minister of Transport, Communications and Works that it contributes to accessing culture, ensuring participation in a democratic community (freedom of the press), or the regional and social cohesion.

6(A).2. Only publishers of newspapers, periodicals and books/professional booksellers/authors or their authorised representatives are entitled to the Special Postal Charge, who must always present the requisite supporting documentation (Registration on the Register retained by the Press and Information Office or the Ministry of Education and Culture for newspapers/periodicals and books, respectively, supporting documentation of professional activities for booksellers or registration with a professional association).

6(A).3. Books should not contain advertisements, except only on their wrapping or cover.

6(A).4. Newspapers, periodicals and books must be issued and printed in Cyprus and registered in accordance with the provisions of the Press Law, as amended from time to time, whereas their content must comply with the provisions of the same Law.

6(A).5. Overseas Postal Items with special charges must satisfy the following conditions:

- (a) For inspection purposes, they must be posted only at the District Post Offices and the Sorting Centres (S.C.), the Bulk Postal Section, or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.
- (b) For purposes of proper management and registering the items when posted, Form T.Y. 105 (P.S. 105) shall be used, as revised/replaced from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.
- (c) The items must be separated per country / zone or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

6(A).6. No discounts are made on the basic charges (Table 6(A)) including the additional charges for special services (Table 8, Table 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3.1).

6(A).7. The standardisation/categorisation of postal items into Small, Large, Irregular (P, G, E) is determined every time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise, subject to the relevant provisions of the Universal Postal Union and other International organisations, that are mandatory for the Department, as amended/replaced from time to time.

6(A).8. In the event of non-compliance on the part of the sender with the conditions in the previous paragraphs, then the items shall be charged in accordance with the usual charges as per Table 6.

6(A).9. In the case of regular customers and customers who post a large volume of postal items, the charges may be paid until the end of the following month within which the items are posted, following special leave, granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended for a period of up to three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

6(A).10. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

ZONE 1: European Union countries and Norway, Switzerland, Iceland, Andorra, San Marino, the Vatican, Liechtenstein and Monaco.

ZONE 2: Other European countries and countries in the rest of the world.

Important notes on Overseas 2nd Priority Letter Mail Postal Items

7.1. The Zone classification of countries is found in detail in Table 11.

7.2. This is for all postal items, irrespective of content or how the text is written, such as letters, greeting cards, invoices, bills, forms, small packages, postcards, items for blind or visually impaired persons, special "M" sacks etc.

7.3. An item for blind or visually impaired persons is any item that is sent by the aforesaid persons or by their recognised Organisations/Foundations/Associations to a recognised Organisation/Foundation/Association abroad for blind or visually impaired persons. The relevant terms and conditions are determined every time by the Director, according to the relevant provisions of the Universal Postal Union.

7.4. Special "M" sacks may contain newspapers, magazines, books and other similar printed matter for the same recipient. "M" sacks may also be sent either as Registered or Express or a combination of both options, by paying the required charges.

7.5. In the event that customers post a large number of postal items the following discounts are granted on the monthly turnover:

Payable monthly postal charges for 1st and 2nd Priority postal items:

- i. Payable monthly postal charges: €1.000 - €5.000 7% discount
- ii. Payable monthly postal charges: €5.000 - €40.000 12% discount
- iii. Payable monthly postal charges: Over €40.000 22% discount

Amended as from 3/4/2017 with a circular directions of the Director of the Department of Postal Service (DDPS).

Discounts are calculated on the total amount of the monthly turnover including the additional charges for special services in relation to the services in Table 8 (Registered and Insured Items) and Table 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3.1.

Notes: (a) The charges for special M sacks are not included in the monthly turnover.

(b) In calculating the payable monthly postal charges, a month is calculated as the first day of the following month from the month of granting approval by the Director to integrate the same in the percentage discount turnover system, for 1st and 2nd Priority Postal Items.

Provided that the Director may, from time to time, amend the content of this paragraph, in his circulars, subject to the relevant legislation and in particular of the Decisions of the Commissioner of Electronic Communications and Postal Regulation (CECPR) as to the minimum and maximum threshold rates.

7.6. In the event of regular customers and customers who post a large volume of postal items, the charges may be paid by the end of the month that follows the month within which the items are posted, with the special permission granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended to a period of three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

7.7. With regard to postal items that are posted in bulk, the regulations of the Universal Postal Union and other Overseas Postal Organisations, that are mandatory for the Postal Services Department (hereinafter the Department), as amended from time to time, shall apply.

7.8. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director of the Department, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

ZONE 1: European Union countries and Norway, Switzerland, Iceland, Andorra, San Marino, the Vatican, Liechtenstein and Monaco.

ZONE 2: Other European countries and countries in the rest of the world.

Important notes on Overseas Postal items with special charges, Second (2nd) Priority, for Newspapers, Periodicals and Books.

7(A).1. 'Overseas Postal Items with Special Charges' means postal items which are sent to recipients outside the Republic of Cyprus and fall under the category of books, newspapers and periodicals and meet the conditions of the Press Law (L. 145/1989), the circulation of which has been considered by the Minister of Transport, Communications and Works that it contributes to accessing culture, ensuring participation in a democratic community (freedom of the press), or the regional and social cohesion.

7(A).2 . Only publishers of newspapers, periodicals and books/professional booksellers/authors or their authorised representatives are entitled to the Special Postal Charge, who must always present the requisite supporting documentation (Registration on the Register retained by the Press and Information Office or the Ministry of Education and Culture for newspapers/periodicals and books, respectively, supporting documentation of professional activities for booksellers or registration with a professional association).

7(A).3. Books should not contain advertisements, except only on their wrapping or cover.

7(A).4. Newspapers, periodicals and books must be issued and printed in Cyprus and registered in accordance with the provisions of the Press Law, as amended from time to time, whereas their content must comply with the provisions of the same Law.

7(A).5. Overseas Postal Items with special charges must satisfy the following conditions:

(a) For inspection purposes, they must be posted only at the District Post Offices and the Sorting Centres (S.C.), the Bulk Postal Section, or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

(b) For purposes of proper management and registering the items when posted, Form T.Y. 105 (P.S. 105) shall be used, as revised/replaced from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

(c) The items must be separated per country / zone or as determined from time to time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise.

7(A).6. No discounts are made on the basic charges (Table 6(A)) including the additional charges for special services (Table 8, Table 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3.1).

7(A).7. The standardisation/categorisation of postal items into Small, Large, Irregular (P, G, E) is determined every time by the Director in his circulars or otherwise, subject to the relevant provisions of the Universal Postal Union and other International organisations, that are mandatory for the Department, as amended/replaced from time to time.

7(A).8. In the event of non-compliance on the part of the sender with the conditions in the previous paragraphs, then the items shall be charged in accordance with the usual charges as per Table 7.

7(A).9. In the case of regular customers and customers who post a large volume of postal items, the charges may be paid until the end of the following month within which the items are posted, following special leave, granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended for a period of up to three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

7(A).10. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

Important notes on Postal Charges for QUICKPOST EXPRESS SERVICE IMPORT

1.(a) Charges for items above 25 kilos are charged per half a kilo or part thereof, with a maximum weight of 30 kilos per item.

(b) The prices are charged according to the higher of actual and volumetric weight.

(c) The volumetric weight is calculated according to the following form, measuring the dimensions in centimetres:

$$\frac{\text{Length} \times \text{Width} \times \text{Height}}{5000}$$

(d) The fuel surcharge according to the US Gulf Coast jet fuel index, is included in the charges. The Department retains the right to amend the charges in the event of a sudden increase in the prices of this index.

2. In the event of regular customers and customers who post a large number of Postal Items, the charges may be paid by the end of the month that follows the month within which the items are posted, with the special permission granted by the Director. In exceptional cases, the time for paying the charges, following the approval of the Director, may be extended to a period of three months from the end of the month of posting the items.

Provided that the Director may, from time to time, in his circulars, grant relevant discounts either on the number of the postal items posted or on the payable postal charges or a combination of both, subject to the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.

In the event of granting a discount, the refugee stamp of 0,02 Euro, VAT and the fuel surcharge are not taken into account.

3. The remaining terms and conditions for posting, accepting, managing, indemnifying, delivering the items, collecting the fixed postal charges and all other relevant matters, are determined from time to time, accordingly, by the Director of the Department, in circulars, subject to the provisions of the relevant legislation and the principles of proportionality, transparency and non-discrimination among users under the same or similar circumstances.
